

Château de Roques

Lussac St. Emilion

In the Bordeaux district of France, originally a Gallo-Roman Villa, then a middle age's castle, Chateau de Roques is today a winery and hotel. Situated on the highest vineyard of the St. Emilion area at 360 ft above sea level. Magnificent.

70% Merlot
30% Cabernet Franc

Terroir: Clay and limestone

Intense Garnet red
Generous nose with notes of vanilla, coffee and chocolate.

Very fruity with a long finish

Ideal to drink
with cheese and red meat

DELICIOUS!
Aged in French Oak

A 'Sublett' Family property